SAM REYNOLDS TO KEYNOTE
SIGMA XI INITIATION, BANQUET
AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA WED.

MISSOULA--

Sam Reynolds, editorial page editor of The Missoulian and a visiting journalism lecturer at the University of Montana, will give the keynote address entitled "Town and Gown Relations" Wednesday (May 12) at the annual banquet and initiation of the UM chapter of Sigma Xi, a science honorary dedicated to the advancement of pure and applied scientific research.

The initiation of new and promoted members of Sigma Xi will begin at 6:30 p.m. in rooms 360 H and I of the University Center. The banquet will begin at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the UC Gold Oak Room.

The following University faculty members were elected to the UM Sigma Xi executive committee for 1971-72 at the annual Sigma Xi business meeting recently at the University:

Dr. Leonard E. Porter, assistant professor of physics, president; Dr. R.S. Hedora, assistant professor of pharmacy, vice president; Dr. W.L. Koostra, assistant professor of microbiology, secretary; and Dr. D.C. Taylor, professor of anthropology, treasurer.

Dr. George L. Card, an assistant professor of microbiology, and Robert G. Schipf, an associate professor (library science), were elected to the Sigma Xi admissions committee.
